

ACU Training Course for Road Race Licence Applicants

As part of the ACU's ongoing policy of rider development and education, and in line with requirements as laid down in the 2004 ACU Handbook, all first time applicants for Novice and Intermediate Novice Road Race licences must undergo a training course.

The ACU Training Course (ACU-T Course) is designed specifically for you as a first time Road Race Licence applicant. The purpose of the course is to ensure that you understand the basic safety and organisational requirements to participate in road racing. Before any new licence can be issued, you must satisfactorily attend the course and pass the multiple-choice test. If you have any worries that you may find the end of course test difficult to complete, please call 01788 566419.

The ACU Training Course will be held every Monday, initially at ACU House, Rugby. Courses will commence on 12th January 2004*. The course will start at 11.00am and hopefully conclude by approximately 3.00pm. To book a place on the course please complete the attached form. The fee for the course includes the course notes and the test itself.

You must also prove your competence to ride a motorcycle. You can do this in one of the following ways:-

- You can obtain a certificate of competence from a recognised track-based training school and attach this to your competition licence application.
- If you hold a valid Class A DVLA driving licence or valid CBT Certificate a copy should accompany your competition licence application.
- If you have held an ACU competition licence for a minimum of one year for any off-road discipline a copy, along with a result sheet from a race, should accompany your competition licence application.

 Please note: we hope to be able to offer the ACU Training Course on other days of the week and at other venues from February 2004. Details of these dates and locations will be published on the ACU website at www.motorcyclinggb.co.uk as and when they become available.*

Please complete and return the Booking Form, overleaf, to the ACU, enclosing a fee for £50.00, to address shown above.
